DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's preliminary amendment filed 01 September 2005 has been received and entered. Claims 1-15 have been amended, claim 16 has been canceled and claims 17-20 have been added. Claims 1-15 and 17-20 are currently pending.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-15, drawn to VEGF variants, polynucleotides encoding said variants, vectors and compositions of the variants, classified in at least class 536, subclass 23.1.
- II. Claim 17, drawn to a method of treating chronic wounds, classified in at least class 514, subclass 2, for example.
- III. Claims 18-19, drawn to a method of treating a vascular lesion, classified in at least class 514, subclass 2, for example.
- IV. Claim 20, drawn to a method for inhibiting plasmin, inducing neoangiogenesis, and/or inhibiting matrix degradation, classified in at least class 514, subclass 2.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and (II-IV) are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, the proteins of Group I could be used in any of the methods of Groups II-IV, as well as in methods of making antibodies. The polynucleotides of Group I are not required for the methods of Groups II-IV, and they could be used in methods of making the protein.

Inventions II-IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together, or they have different modes of operation, or they have different functions, or they have different effects. (MPEP §§ 806.04 and 808.01). In the instant case, the different inventions are directed to distinct methods which are not required one for the other. The methods are treating different conditions which require different patient populations, and therefore, different effects. A search of the art for chronic wounds (Group II) would not necessarily reveal art for a vascular lesion or matrix degradation (Groups III and IV), and vice versa. Therefore, the methods are not related.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification and the necessity for non-coextensive literature searches, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Rejoinder Practice

The Examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where Applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04.

Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to a final rejection or notice of allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the even of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. §§ 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidelines on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b)," 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder.

Art Unit: 1647

Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the Examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

Conclusion

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined (including election of species) even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
